Presidents' Message

Mike Slack and his gang are back next week with the return of the San Francisco Footwarmers as the featured band for September. (Find out why they're called the "Footwarmers" by reading the bio on the opposite page, and no, it has nothing to do with Indian Summer.) And if that isn't enough to look forward to this fall, the Beyond Salvation band is right behind them in October. Tom Barnebey's group is always a good bet for fine traditional jazz and a good rhythm for dancing.

A special thanks to the Gold Coast Jazz Band and the Mission Gold Jazz Band, both of which helped create some golden memories on stage the past couple of months. And thanks to board members Jim Broadstreet and Bruce Stangeland for filling in while both club presidents were gone in August. (We'll try to avoid that in the future.)

As we wind down the year, the board is looking toward 2014 and trying to come up with another lineup of great feature bands (as well as a solid Annual Showcase of Bands in February), but it's difficult to know which bands to enlist without your help. Tell us who you'd like to see up on the stage at Champa and we'll do our best to make sure we're representing your preferences. Our mission is the preservation of traditional jazz, but there are still many great bands playing within the style, so let us know whom you like.

While asking for your input, this might be a good time to remind everyone that this is a volunteer organization – one in which the majority of the members benefit greatly from the efforts of a few dedicated, hard-working volunteers – and that if you'd like to give back to the club in ways other than your membership dues, we will cheerfully accept nearly all help that might be offered.

Band leaders: The NOJCNC is going to start using the club Facebook page (www.facebook.com/nojcnc) to start promoting events and gigs throughout the region. So if you have a regular or occasional gig you want to promote, go to the page (or drop a note to Paul Hilton) and create an event. We're all in the business of supporting great jazz and we should take advantage of every method available. Also, browse the photos; band leaders are welcome to use any of the photos in there for promotion or for your band web sites.

Don't forget to continue bringing in gifts for the raffle, and thank you everyone who has already been supplying the raffle, as well as those who have been buying tickets.

co-presidents, NOJCNC

SEPT. 15, 1 p.m.
San Francisco Footwarmers

The San Francisco Footwarmers offer a unique mix of music from Armstrong, Morton, Bechet, Duke Ellington and Fats Waller. The band, which will have two cornets (Mike Slack and Tom Barnebey) and therefore a good chance for some great King Oliver tunes, has been featured at the Sacramento Jubilee, the Fairmont on Nob Hill, and at jazz festivals and clubs around the state.

But what are Footwarmers? It turns out it's a name borrowed from great Sidney Bechet's New Orleans Footwarmers and Ellington's Harlem Footwarmers -- and apt homage by a band playing classic jazz.

The Band

Mike Slack, cornet
Tom Barnebey, cornet
Jim Klippert, trombone
Pete Main, reeds
Bill Gould, piano
Bill DeKuiper, guitar
Marty Eggers, bass
Hugh O'Donnell, drums

JULY 21, 1 p.m.
Gold Coast Jazz Band

Tom Barnebey's group has been the featured band at NOJCNC events for a number of years and never fails to please with a five-man ensemble, usually heavy on reeds. The band lineup typically includes some combination of Barnebey, cornet, trombone & tuba; Ken Keeler, banjo; Ray Walker, reeds; Robert Young, saxophone; Pete Main, clarinet.
